PER ASTRA AD ASTRA

«B your own star»

B–Astre is an astral pop singer/songwrite, performer and producer.

She embodies the sky with her haunting voice and allows the audience to join her in the stars. A blue universe which engage the blue of the blues and the infinity and the sky which point out the heart as a star, the blue of water...

B–Astra : “to become your own star”

Also a performer and pianist; originating from the foggy capital of Belgium and on an intense journey into the great beyond. Often called an “alien born to earth,” she has been on a voyage tinged with surrealism and filled with energy; overcoming struggles and using her art to turn pain into joy.

Once a street child after a distinguished musical education, she freed herself as an assertive and self-made original stage blue woman. Her soul embraced a chorus of alley creatures, combining her formal music training with an underground flare that she developed on the flipside of Brussels nightlife. A journey through the human’s eye fraught with pitfalls of which she rose a thousand times: singing, playing, and dancing, she created a style of her own.

1ST EP B YOUR OWN STAR

This EP is a journey through different planets.

B YOUR OWN STAR

A dark experimental electro-pop song that carries an incantatory hymn to self-suggestion, heroism, with a fierce voice where the chorus repetition leads the listener to plunge into a dark universe but muffled by daily winds and tides by the tablecloths, a distorted bass that illustrates the hazardous path we take to discover ourselves, and an epic guitar that reminds us that in every moment of our life, it is will and perseverance that allows us to come out stronger. Videoclip in NY before covid.

TOI

A song with mysterious lyrics and lyrical melody. A stroll through the enchanting voices over several octaves supported by a human and sensitive message.

You is a dialogue with ourselves and close to us to relativize and build together. The videos have both with english subtitles (fan video & original one).

An organic francophone electro-pop, reminiscent of the singer Camille or Kate Bush.

AT THE BAR

Electro straight out of a track from the 80s, the arpeggiator shouting the scope of this catchy and dancing track. And yet the structure reminds us of Lady Gaga's hits at the beginning. «At the bar» takes us to the turning point of the return to our past love, which we immerse ourselves in in order to understand and break the cycle we create in the emotional dependence of the other, and which has put many others in addictions such as the ones we find at the corner of the bar... in delirium of what we have lost and yet which by the memory still proves to us that it is in us.

LES RUES DE BRUXELLES

A Belgian-style brol with texts, a guided tour through Brussels... that laughs at itself, at what the sense of self-derision has of madness and beauty, it is to see in everything – the solitude, the street, the drama... a nice way to play down the drama and move forward, with a smile on your face and «joie de vivre» (joy of living) in your hand!

GIFS #lesruesdebruxelles made more than 8 millions views.

The video filmed in the Streets of the European Capital immersed from selection of 5 songs for a national competition of speed-clipping organised by VKRS. The song was also finalist of competition «Bruxelles je t'aime» of LA MAISON DE LA FRANCITE which has mission to celebrate french language (poetry, song, slam, etc.) through belgian community and worldwide.

TO THE FOREST

A loving and wild ode to the forest, where the voices lead to a walk in our instinct and to the nature of which we are made, whose refrain reminds us of the sounds of the wind in the branches of the many trees.

A storytelling worthy of a superhuman transformation, where the voice of the forest speaks to us through B-Astre to tell us to take care of her, to be careful otherwise it is his savagery that will not spare us. We are by the hand through this forgotten sensation that Nature is what grows without us, not by us, and that it is greater than the human being : it will balance itself out by causing our own loss first.... not hers.

B–Astre: new clip «B your own star».

«We must dare to affirm, during the dark days we are going through, that each and everyone can become the star of a bright firmament, of an artistic constellation where individuality can lead to great causes and consequences. B–Astre has been asserting this for several months through her permanent commitments, whether it be during her Saturday house concerts, her city interventions, her sharing and shouting; all these sources of hypersensitive rebellion that have led her today to «B your own star», a hope that is anything but in vain for a luminous revival on the misty and steaming ashes of convictions that are no longer there.

Through dance and smile, through her convincing and reassuring look, she attracts us, sows the seeds of deep reflection, of a function we all have in repainting the crumbling walls of artistic buildings on the verge of collapsing.

Rhythm and music grow, transform, surround a woman possessed by her language and her mad will, marking the reality of acts, gestures, gifts of self that radically upset an order on the verge of implosion. A light spreading from body to body, from soul to soul. And radiating on the multitude, by its wisdom and honesty.»
